EGS Presents

Grand Theft Auto

Rockstar Games's game Grand Theft AutoV just celebrated its 10th anniversary being online this past September 14th and with that being said they have been dropping hints of a GTA VI is in the making.

Here in EGS our members play a pretty large range of games with GTA V being one of them. The news team asked one of our members a couple questions about GTA. And his name is THEPUNISHER2023, he's a member in our Solar TLE squad.

We asked Punisher, what is it that he's hoping the new GTA VI has as well as what he thinks GTA should improve in their game and he responded with, "I'm hoping it has a good story line." As well as, "GTA should improve the aiming instead of the little dot in the middle of the screen when aiming guns and stuff." Honestly who doesn't like a game with a good story line.

The news team just had a couple more questions before letting Punisher go. We asked him, "How do you think the new game will be?, and is it something you are looking forward to?" THEPUNISHER2023 answered with this, "I think the game will be good with graphics and a storyline and I think it will be a great game to preorder and another great release for 2023." Im sure we all wish they could release the game by this Christmas of 2023 but unfortunately it's said the new GTA VI won't be launched until late 2024 early 2025.

On September 14th during the GTA V online anniversary event is when they started leaking the new GTA VI, while no official news has been leaked they have only been giving small hints here and there. The leaks suggests that possibly GTA VI will have a Vice City type setting and feature male and female protagonists.

I'm sure all the GTA fans will be eagerly waiting for the actual release of GTA VI and us here at the EGS news team will be here waiting with them to give our members the news on the actual release date of this gamer classic and we thank you THEPUNISHER2023 for taking the time out of your day to answer some questions for us. Hope to catch you all next time here at the EGS gaming news!!
